

Resource Appendix

Resources

Following are some resources for learning more about financial education. These are provided for your convenience, but in no way represent the full spectrum of financial education resources. You may find others you find even more useful than anything listed here.

| Website | Sponsoring Organization | Category | Noteworthy Features |
|--|---|---|---|
| www.jumpstart.org | JumpStart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy | General financial education | See clearinghouse section for resources and curricula |
| www.mymoney.gov | U.S. Financial Literacy and Education Commission | General financial education | Links to Federal Citizen Information Center and First Gov for Consumers |
| www.nefe.org | National Endowment for Financial Education | General financial education | Curricula for special populations through Collaborative Programs link |
| www.beehive.org | One Economic Corporation | General financial education Consumer information | Specifically designed for people with low income and includes worksheets |
| www.federalreserveeducation.org | The Federal Reserve System | General financial education Banking system | Links to all Federal Reserve District Websites and other financial education websites |
| www.wife.org | Women's Institute for Financial Education | General financial education Planning tools for women | Worksheets and tools to help prepare for divorce, becoming a widow and more |
| www.ncee.net | National Council on Economic Education | General financial education | Online lessons and materials for teaching; geared to |

Materials created for the AFI Resource Center Financial Literacy Enhancement Initiative
 By Inger Giuffrida, Jacqueline Cooper and Kimberly Zimmerman Rand
 For more information, contact: (866) 778-6037 or info@idaresources.org

| Website | Sponsoring Organization | Category | Noteworthy Features |
|--|--|-------------------------------|---|
| | | General economics education | K-12, but many activities adaptable to adults |
| www.bankrate.com | Bankrate.com | Financial rates and products | Aggregated financial rate information and general information about a full range of financial services and products |
| www.insurance.com | Insurance.com | Insurance | Information about insurance products, calculators and quotes from insurance companies |
| www.annualcreditreport.com | AnnualCreditReport.com | Credit report (free annual) | This site and service is authorized and sponsored by Equifax, Transunion and Experian |
| www.incharge.org | InCharge Debt Solutions | Debt management Credit | See "Resources" section |
| www.choosetosave.org | Employee Benefit Research Institute and the American Savings Education Council | Saving | See "Saving Tips" section |
| www.affluenza.org or www.newdream.org | Center for a New American Dream | Consumerism | Information about living with less, resisting the pressure to buy more, and helping the environment |

| Curriculum | Sponsoring Organization | Category | Noteworthy Features |
|--|----------------------------------|---------------------------------|---|
| Finding Paths to Prosperity | CFED | General financial education | IDA focused; very participatory approaches; contiguous sections; can be used for individual study as well as in classroom |
| Money Smart | FDIC | General financial education | Non interdependent modules; multi-media; available in multiple languages |
| Building Native Communities | First Nations Oweesta | General financial education | Developed for Native Communities |
| Your Values, Your Choices, Your Money | Thrivent Financial for Lutherans | Faith-based financial education | Approaches all content from perspective of stewardship; highly participatory; includes IDA |
| NEFE High School Financial Planning Curriculum | NEFE | Youth | Targeted at young people; highly participatory; very explicit facilitator's guide |
| Other Ideas from Participants: | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |